

The Concord Center

The Concord Center, LLC, is accepting applications for a psychology practicum student beginning in September 2023 through the end of June 2024. The Concord Center is a group practice in Concord, MA, specializing in evidence-based treatments for mood and anxiety disorders, OCD, personality disorders, and related emotion dysregulation in children, adolescents, and young adults. Individual and group therapy services are provided using evidence-based modalities, with a focus on cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT), exposure and response prevention (ERP), and dialectical behavior therapy (DBT), among others.

The Concord Center, LLC, seeks to increase the access to, and advancement of, evidence-based care in our community. We strive to provide playful intervention, outreach, consultation, and training that results in measurable and lasting outcomes. Students have the opportunity to contribute to various activities that help advance the mission of The Concord Center. They will gain experience in one or more training domains, including:

- CBT with children and families
- DBT with adolescents and young adults
- Intensive outpatient treatment for adolescents with anxiety and/or OCD and related disorders

Practicum students will receive supervised experience providing evidence-based treatments across the lifespan in individual and group treatment. Specific training components include:

- Two hours of supervision per week by licensed psychologists
- One to two hours of weekly group case consultation meetings
- Weekly didactic seminar on topics relevant to CBT, DBT, and other specialized empirically supported treatments

Qualifications:

- Enrolled in a doctoral program for counseling or clinical psychology
- Students in their 3rd or 4th year of the program
- Prior experience or course work in evidence-based treatment modalities preferred

Applications will be accepted beginning in December 2022 and must be received by January 9, 2023. The Concord Center will adhere to guidelines established by the Mass PTC.
